Commonwealth Master's Scholarships in the South Pacific

Why study at the University of the South Pacific (USP)

The University of the South Pacific (USP) says:

USP is the premier provider of tertiary education in the Pacific region and an international centre of excellence for teaching, research consulting and training on all aspects of Pacific culture, environment and human resource development needs.

USP has campuses in 12 Pacific island countries: Cook Islands, Fiji, Kiribati, Marshall Islands, Nauru, Niue, Samoa, Solomon Islands, Tokelau, Tonga, Tuvalu and Vanuatu.

Subjects

All Master's courses offered by USP. Course information can be found on the USP website.

The Scholarships

- One scholarship is available, starting in February 2019
- The scholarship provides full tuition fees, a return economy flight, an arrival allowance and a regular stipend (living allowance)
- The scholarship is for Master's study only and is not applicable to distance learning courses
- The scholarship is for new students only and cannot be used to fund a course you have already started
- No additional funding will be provided for applicants with families
- The scholarship is for a maximum of two years

Support for Commonwealth Scholars

The university provides support with visa advice, accommodation, airport pick-ups and orientation.

All Commonwealth Scholars have a dedicated contact person at the ACU who can be contacted by email and phone.
