

Weh Wi Ga Fi Seh

Vairos di eez dong,
bot kip op yu helt.

Migl a May, ahn Breez Di Bloa!

Fi di laas too Kriol aatiki, wi mi shya bowt disya nais nais Bileez breez (di wan weh bloa, noh di neks kain a Bileez breez!). Eena Kriol, wi seh “win” (wind) er “breez” (breeze), ahn wi ku di taak bowt big breez, haad breez, er smaal breez, lee breez. Tudeh wi shya di laas set a di sentens dehn wid BREEZ. Soh, sata bai yu doa mowt ahn kech lee breez! Sidong wid dehnya sentens ahn breez aaf! Aal dehnya sentens kohn fahn di Kriol-English dikshineri.

Da big bildin di blak aal a di breez.

That big building is blocking all of the wind.

Di oal laydi an ih hozban mi-di sidong bai dehn doa mowt fi kech breez. The old lady and her husband were sitting in the doorway catching the breeze.

Nais kool breez mi-di bloa owtsaid weh wi mi-di sidong.

A nice cool breeze was blowing where we were sitting.

See breez bloa pilikin sayhn plays ih waahn goh.

Sea breezes blew the pelican just where he wanted to go.

Mi hyaa mi luk gud dis maanin, bot az Ah gaan owtsaid, breez rampl it op. My hair looked good this morning, but as I went outside, the breeze tousled it up.

Yu oanli injai wahn saylin boat raid wen gud breez deh.

You can only enjoy a ride in a sailboat when there is a good wind blowing.

Kevin hihn soh skraani dat ih luk laik breez uda bloa ahn oava. That Kevin is so scrawny that it looks like a breeze would blow him over.
